

REMARKS

Prior to issuance of subject application, it is respectfully requested that the foregoing amendments be entered and fully considered by the Examiner. The foregoing amendments are merely set forth to properly encompass Applicant's invention.

Accordingly, it is again respectfully requested that the foregoing amendments be entered and fully considered by the Examiner. Should the Examiner disagree with the foregoing amendments or believe a conference would be of benefit in expediting the prosecution of the instant application, he is hereby invited to telephone counsel to arrange such a conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald R. Studebaker
